tained Senator Kittredge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BALTIMORE, June 13.—Great interest is expressed in society here in the news from Bloux Falls that Mrs. William Rhinelander Stewart, of New York, has joined the "divorce colony" there.
Mrs. Stewart, who before her marriage to Mr. Stewart, in 1879, was Miss Annie M. Armstrong, of Baltimore, arrived in Sloux Falls within the past few days. A dispatch from Sloux Falls says that Mrs. Stewart is reported to have retained United States Senator Kittredge as her counsel. Senator Kittredge refuses to either aftern or deny the report.
Mrs. Stewart was a daughter of the late John Armstrong, of Baltimore. She was a debutante in this city in the latter part of the seventless, and attracted much attention by her beauty and grace. She is a sister of Mrs. Drexel, of Philadelphia. Several years after coming out, she married Mr. Stewart, who was then and is now a member of a wealthy and socially prominent family of New York.
